

Optimal Trading with Market Impact

June 8, 2011

Abstract

We consider the problem of mean-variance optimal execution in a market with limited liquidity. We assume a very general price impact function that captures all possible price impacts - whether it be instantaneous, temporary or permanent. Our main contribution is the derivation of closed-form expressions for the optimal strategies.